

Salisbury-Rowan Farmer's Market Rules

- ** Sixty percent (60%) of items sold by vendors at the Salisbury-Rowan Farmer's Market must be produced in the county where the producer lives. For example, if a grower lives in Rowan County, 60% of the produce must be produced in that county.
- **The Salisbury-Rowan Farmer's Market is open to producers in Rowan and surrounding counties.
- ** Vendors who buy items for resale must have a North Carolina Sales Tax License as required by law.
- ** Items sold are fresh fruits and vegetables, plants, cut flowers, baked goods and canned goods.
- **Sales Not Allowed: Live animals, flea market type items, pickles, low acid canned foods (such as beans, corn, tomatoes, etc. as specified by the N. C. Department of Agriculture).
- ** No fresh meat or fish shall be sold.
- **No produce may be sold which is unwholesome or unsound.
- ** No pricing signs larger than 8 1/2 x 11 inches are permitted.
- ** All setups and displays must be removed by the end of designated sale day.
- ** Each vendor is responsible for cleaning up his own space. All debris must be removed at the end of each day.
- **For sanitation purposes, each vendor should have hand-washing supplies on-hand at all times.
- **Prices must be posted for all items sold and where the produce or items were grown.
- **All products produced under certification such as 'Organic License': meat, poultry, or dairy products; or products requiring inspection such as baked goods or preserves must be labeled and must display certification or license.
- **All scales must be approved as "Legal for Trade". Anyone using scales must have them certified by the NCDA.
- **Members should not move their vehicles in or out of the market area during times when such movement would pose a danger to people in the shopping area.
- **The Farmers' Market will be open 3 days a week, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.
- ** All goods will be sold under sanitary conditions and under North Carolina Department of Agriculture regulations.
- **For the safety and comfort of all, both sellers and buyers are requested to keep their children under control at all times
- **For the benefit of all, sellers are requested to abide by the above guidelines. Any problems that arise shall be referred to the market manager. Those not abiding by the guidelines will be requested to leave the premises.
- **The Market Manager of the Salisbury-Rowan County Farmers' Market is authorized to enforce the rules.
